The Board has a Remuneration Committee ("RC") to implement the remuneration policies and procedures. The RC reviews and recommends to the Board for approval, the remuneration of the directors and SM, after taking into considerations the complexities of the company's business and the individual's responsibilities, including the company's management of material sustainability risks and opportunities. The remuneration should also be aligned to the business strategy and long-term objective of the Company. No Board member will be involved in deciding his own remuneration.

The RC also ensures that the remuneration and incentives for Independent Directors do not conflict with their obligation to bring objective and independent judgement on matters discussed at Board Meeting.

3) Executive Directors and Senior Management

The remuneration packages (including salary, bonus, benefits-in-kind and other emoluments) of the Executive Directors and Senior Management are structured to ensure that the compensation and benefits commensurate with the level of the responsibilities, individual performance and experience, as well as taking into consideration the Company's performance relative to the industry.

The remuneration packages are also structured to ensure that the base salary element is competitive and fair to attract, motivate and retain experienced and knowledgeable individuals needed to support the Company's plans in line with its overall objective of delivering long-term value to its shareholders.

BOARD CHARTER

The Executive Directors are further paid a fixed annual director's fee, which shall be reviewed by the RC and recommended to the Board. The Board shall further seek for shareholders' approval at Annual General Meeting.

4) Non-Executive Directors

Non-Executive Directors receive director's fees and are entitled to other benefits such as meeting allowance, training expenses and reimbursement of expenses incurred in the course of performing their services.

The RC reviews the directors' fee and other benefits to ensure that it remains appropriate to each director's contribution, by taking into account the level of expertise, time commitment and responsibilities undertaken. The RC shall make recommendation to the Board for approval annually. It is the responsibility of the Board as a whole to approve the director's fees and other benefits and seek for shareholders' approval at Annual General Meeting.

5) All directors and Senior Management are covered under Directors' and Officer Liability and Indemnity Insurance Policy against any liability incurred by them in discharging their duties while holding office as directors and Senior Management of the Company.

6) The remuneration packages of all directors are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.

7) Any amendment to the Remuneration Policies and Procedure shall be deliberated by the Remuneration Committee, and any recommendation for revisions shall be presented to the Board for approval.
